

The Hardenbergh Group, Inc. acquires MDReview

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—December 13, 2019 --The Hardenbergh Group, the leading provider of temporary staffing and consulting solutions for medical staff services, credentialing, and provider enrollment, today announced that it has acquired MDReview, the leading provider of external physician peer review services for hospitals and health systems throughout the United States.

For over 15 years, MDReview has offered external, independent third-party physician peer review services to hospitals throughout the United States to help them improve the quality of care they provide. MDReview works with medical staff leaders to identify and resolve physician issues that impact the quality of care delivered to the community served. MDReview focuses on integrity, objectivity, sensitivity, confidentiality, and timeliness to provide hospital clients with an incomparable resource.

Sharon Beckwith, CEO of MDReview, has been committed to the company’s mission for more than 10 years. “Perfecting the peer review process has been our singular focus since our founding,” said Ms. Beckwith. “We listen carefully to clients’ unique needs and tailor solutions accordingly. We also carefully select, train, and monitor peer reviewers and actively oversee the projects to ensure timely delivery and a quality work product. We are excited to be joining The Hardenbergh Group, with whom we share common goals and a commitment to excellence. We believe this combination will strengthen our collective ability to serve our clients’ needs.”

“Given our common goal of ensuring that clients have qualified providers caring for patients, The Hardenbergh Group’s acquisition of MDReview is particularly fitting, because, together, we increase our opportunity to help improve the quality of patient care,” said Bob Wiemer, CEO of The Hardenbergh Group.

MDReview’s operations will continue in its Denver office, and MDReview’s clients will continue to experience continuity of service and the same outstanding customer service they have grown to expect and appreciate from MDReview.

“We would like to welcome MDReview’s clients and employees to Hardenbergh,” said Mr. Wiemer. “Hardenbergh is committed to transforming practitioner administration and improving the quality of patient care by delivering solutions that exceed clients’ expectations and providing exceptional customer service. We are excited to partner with MDReview which shares our mission and values.”

About The Hardenbergh Group

Hardenbergh is the leading provider of temporary staffing and consulting solutions for medical staff services, credentialing, and provider enrollment for hospitals, health systems, CVOs, health plans, medical groups, and networks across the United States to ensure that they have qualified providers caring for patients, deliver quality patient care, and achieve high provider satisfaction.

For more information, contact info@md-review.com or communications@hardenberghgroup.com.